

Clifton Springs Area YMCA

Whistleblower Policy

Introduction

The Statement of Values and Code of Ethics adopted by Clifton Springs Area YMCA (“YMCA”) requires all staff, board members, and volunteers to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. As employees and representatives of the YMCA, we must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling our responsibilities and comply with all applicable laws and regulations. Set forth below is the YMCA’s policy with respect to reporting good-faith concerns about the legality or propriety of YMCA actions or plans.

Reporting of Concerns or Complaints

It is the responsibility of all staff, board members, and volunteers to comply with the YMCA’s Code of Ethics and applicable law and to report violations or suspected violations in accordance with this Whistleblower Policy.

Confidentiality

The YMCA will treat all communications under this policy in a confidential manner, except to the extent necessary 1) to conduct a complete and fair investigation, or 2) for review of YMCA operations by the YMCA’s board, its audit committee, the YMCA’s independent public accountants, and the YMCA’s legal counsel.

Retaliation

The YMCA will not permit any negative or adverse actions to be taken against any employee or individual for making a good-faith report of a possible violation of its Code of Ethics or applicable law, even if the report is mistaken, or against any employee or individual who assists in the investigation of a reported violation. Retaliation in any form will not be tolerated. Any act of alleged retaliation should be reported immediately and will be promptly investigated. An employee who retaliates against someone who has reported a violation in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment. This Whistleblower Policy is intended to encourage and enable employees and others to raise serious concerns within the YMCA prior to seeking resolution outside the organization.

How to Report Concerns or Complaints

Employees and others may communicate suspected violations of its Code of Ethics, applicable law, or other wrongdoing or alleged retaliation by contacting the YMCA’s Executive Director at 315-462-6184 or by mail at 5 Crane Street, Clifton Springs, NY 14432. If you wish to remain anonymous, it is not necessary that you give your name or position in any notification.

Whether or not you identify yourself, for a proper investigation to be conducted, please provide the YMCA with as much information as you can, sufficient to do a proper investigation, including where and when the incident occurred, names and titles of the individuals involved, and as much other detail as you can provide.
